

Conditions of participation, Red Drivers Association

I agree with the conditions of participation of the Red Drivers Association / Ducati Challenge. I declare to have read and understood the content of the Ducati Challenge 2019 regulations, to accept these and comply with them.

Participants have the responsibility to participate in a safe and correct way to the activities organised by the Red Drivers Association. As to the speed difference between the riders, the Red Drivers Association / Ducati Challenge will always choose for safety first.

The Red Drivers Association / Ducati Challenge is not responsible and cannot be held responsible for personal injuries or damage to your material or helpers incurred during events. You are familiar with the fact that you can be held responsible for damages of all nature, incurred due to noncompliance of rules or directions of the organisation. This accounts for damage caused by your actions to co-riders and/or their helpers. Damage to the infrastructure of the race circuit or other damage, claims and costs will be charged to you after the event. Red Drivers Association / Ducati Challenge cannot be asked to mediate in relation to discussions or problems between riders / helpers, neither can you involve Red Drivers Association / Ducati Challenge
